END COMES TO PAUL JAENICKE

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD FRIDAY
AT 1:30 FROM ST. JOHN'S
LUTHERAN CHURCH

Paul Jaenicke, for years whose name was a synonym of thrift and industry and who, since 1919, has been a leading and respected citizen of Groton, passed away at his home here Tuesday night at about 9:00 o'clock—victim of an illness which has kept him confined for the past two or three years.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 from St. John's Lutheran church with Rev. F. E. Wilke conducting the services. Burial will be made in in Groton cemetery.

Born in Belin, Germany, January 25, 1855, he sailed for this country in June, 1885, and came direct to Dakota. For a number of years he worked as a farm hand in this vicinity, and by frugal habits and hard work he accumulated sufficient capital to buy a farm northeast of town, and he lived there until 1919 when he moved to Groton. At the time of his death he was well fixed financially, having planned wisely and well to see him through his declining years in comfort and complacency.

Mr. Jaenicke was married to Miss Bertha Georg in 1891, the ceremony taking place in Groton. She passed away August 5, 1935.

As far as is known he leaves to mourn his loss only one brother now living in Belin, Germany, in the immediate family, although there are hundreds of sorrowing friends who will feel his loss quite keenly.
